Happy Thanksgiving Everyone;

Yes I know its late getting out, but with working voting. Then the Board meeting not till the 7th I got a bit behind. OK so whats new I'm always behind. Now on a reminder note don't forget the Hillards Thanksgiving Dinner. Its the 24th at noon, & you need to bring a covered dish. So come on out and give thanks with us. It's always been a great time and I'm sure this year won't be any different. Can you imagine its only 42 days till da fat guy comes? As if you could forget with all the stores putting out Christmas stuff before Halloween, if that keeps up their just going to keep it up all year. On that note the Association Christmas party is on the 10th of December from 6 to 8 P.M. The theme this year is Christmas around the World. So start thinking about that covered dish, bring one from around the world. You know Kris is going to make it a fun time for sure, so mark that date on your calender.

If you haven't been around you wouldn't know the trash from Matthew is still here. It seems FEMA is in charge of the clean up so you know what that means, it might be picked up by next hurricane season. They started in south FL. & are working their way north, must be using a pickup truck & a rake. So on a lighter note here's the info from the Board meeting. Lol.

The Executive Committee; Had nothing to report, Custodial/Maintenance; Thanks to Bruno, Kris & George for the clean up at the boat ramp great job. Hall Use; Nothing Kris hall use on the 2nd of December. Neighborhood Watch/ Welcome Committee; Nothing as Glenda was absent do to Woody being in the hospital. Woody's still in intensive care @ North Florida in Gainesville, so he can use your prayers. Yard of the Month; went to Mike Kline @ 103 Marie St. Front Entrance; Al put out fertilizer, but people are still throwing out their trash. Activities & Events; Hillards Thanksgiving dinner on the 24 @ noon, covered dish, come on out for a time to give thanks. December 10th Christmas party, 6P.M. Till 8 P.M. Theme this year is Christmas around the world. Bring a covered dish from another country. It's going to be a fun time as always with Kris doing it. Yard Sale; We made $ 145 dollars from donated things & a lot of work by George, Bobby, Glenda & Kris. Thanks & Great Job. Governing Documents; Nothing to report.

The fish & game will resume spraying of the lakes in the near future. Maintenance Dues are out Due Before January1st. Were sorry to report we had a fire @ 423 Holiday Dr. its going to take a lot of work to make livable again. The owner received a few little burns trying to put it out, but is OK. Thanks to lot 105 for cleaning up the yard, Now we need to have 106 Hunter Rd. to do the same. There was a question about Grass carp being put in the lakes again, really folks do some research on the question, its a bad idea. The FWCC was in here on the 31st to spray the lakes. Its a many time process so they will be back. Bob met with Attorney Keyser on October 27 to settle the Haines law suit.

Important dates to remember.
